

CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL CHALLENGES

IN POLAND AND ITALY

INDEX

- Climate Change
- Mental Health
- Racial and Social Injustice
- Migration and Displacement

Climate change

Poland

Poland is vulnerable to the impacts of climate change such as:

- increase in the frequency of extreme weather events including floods
- droughts and hurricanes
- sea level rise
- increase in temperature and precipitation

[3]

Climate change

Italy

The main impacts of the climate change in Italy are:

- increase of average temperature
- heatwaves
- droughts
- sea level rise(Venice)
- floodings

[5]

Mental Health

Poland

Mental health is often overlooked and ignored, due to low level of awareness and high level of stigmatization. Nowadays Poland is taking action against this problem by educating people.

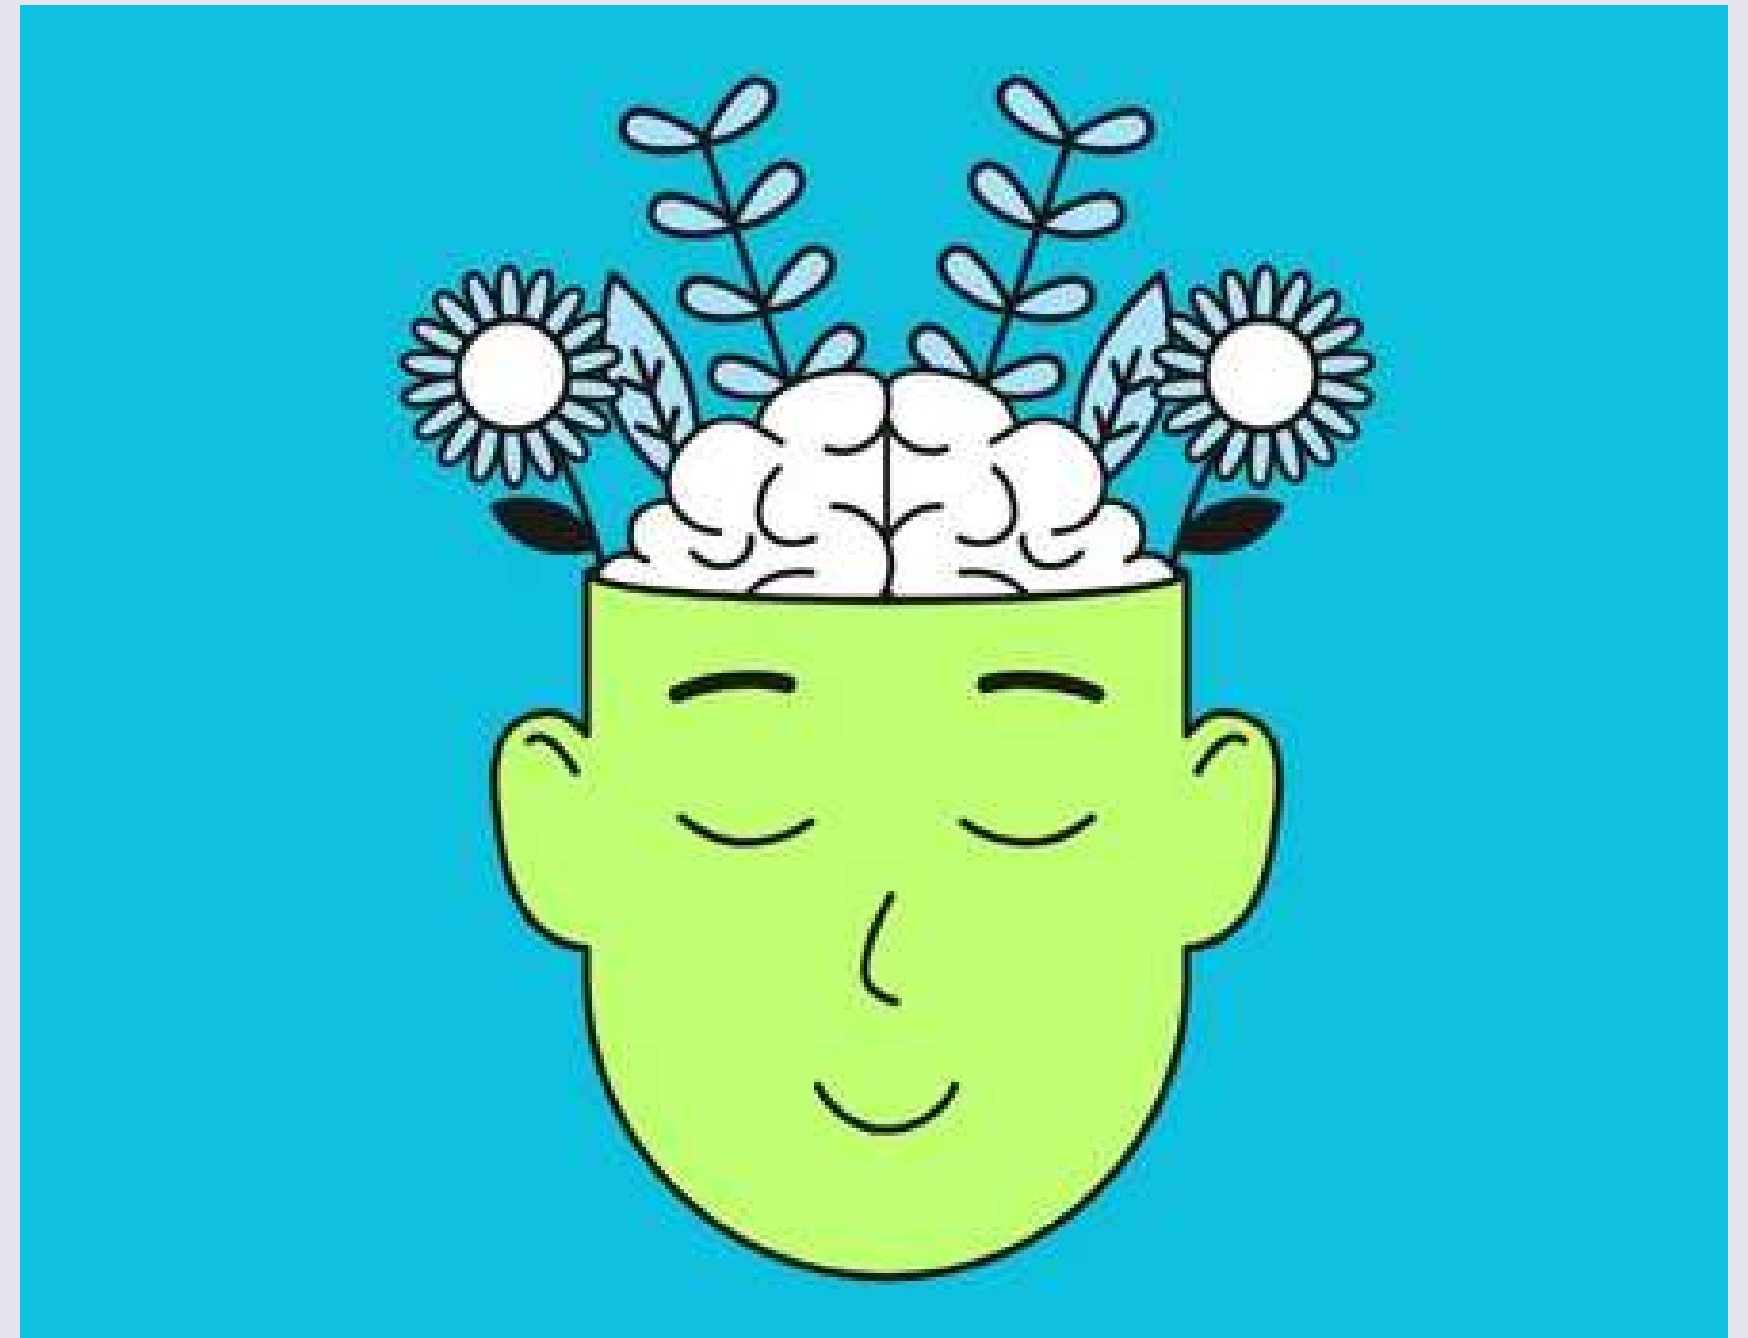

Mental Health

Italy

24% of Italians live with at least one mental health issue. Very small part of healthcare funds is donated to the mental health services.

[8]

Racial and Social Injustice

Poland

Polish people are generally tolerant and kind towards people of other ethnicities and skin color. The country is reported to have a low level of racism as of now.

Racial and Social Injustice

Italy

There is Anti-Roma sentiment in Italy and some Italians are racist towards immigrants mainly from Africa. Many activism groups organise protests in order to fight against racism.

[11]

Migration and Displacement

Poland

Poland has admitted many immigrants, coming mainly from Ukraine. The country also faced illegal migrations from Belarus.

Migration and Displacement

Italy

Italy is currently experiencing a migration crisis. There are numerous migrants coming from African countries to improve their financial situation.
